Steve Maxson has totaled Elite in the 198 and 220 weight classes. He trains at Coach's Hardcore Gym in Hickory, NC with the Tribe Powerlifting Team that includes Gino Casali, Buddy Nichols, Garret Huffman, Josh Miller and Sean Page. He is the VP of Sales for a medical equipment company and he lives with his wife and two kids in Hickory, NC.

North Carolina has a great powerlifting community and I look forward to giving the lifters of North Carolina more opportunities to compete in their own state through the IPA.
