Nathan is an equipped powerlifting veteran who started competing in 1997 and is a multiple IPA World Record Holder, of which he's held for nearly a decade. He was trained by some of the best lifters in the world, including Dave Hoff, Phil Harrington and Bill Crawford.

Nathan hosted multiple IPA competitions in Ontario and Nova Scotia, including IPA Worlds in 2017, where he owned and operated Amherst Powerlifting Club. He currently resides in Lloydminster SK, where he and his wife Yael, operate Berserker Barbell and TruNorth Conjugate.

He is one of only six Canadians to ever squat 1000 lbs, and his bench press ranks top ten overall in Canada. Nathan is also an International IPA and WPC judge and has enjoyed officiating at competitions all over including Columbus OH, Cincinnati OH, New York and Pennsylvania. Outside of powerlifting, Nathan is a triple ticketed Journeyman as an Automotive Technician, Machinist and Tool & Die Maker.
